Welcome!

HELLLLLOOOOO and welcome to the summer signings, welcome back to all the old faithfuls.

I hope you all enjoyed your break from hockey and are ready and raring to get stuck in to the new season.

Our main objective obviously is to get back to division 2 but also enjoy and improve as a team. If anyone has anything specific they would like to work on please just let me know, I don't bite (very often) oh I'm the new captain btw. I will now introduce the amazin team of players who will be running the club on the right

So as you may have also noticed the FANZINE is back, thank god I hear you all say ;). The next edition will be due before christmas so any article or feature you would like in the 8th edition let me know, or email me your articles direct to: info@beccanewman.co.uk

Will this season bring a new top goal scorer?

The question is:
The fringe ... good look or big no no?
please vote on watersidelhc's facebook page. It could change her life

The lack of a fanzine last season meant that some new signings have not yet received an official welcome...well here it is x

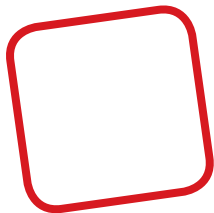

SIAN,

Thanks for service last season we are all glad your back for another season! And with a lovely sounding new man ... do spill ;)

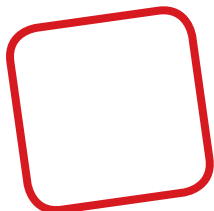

KIRSTY

Again thanks for your service last season we are all glad your back for another season!

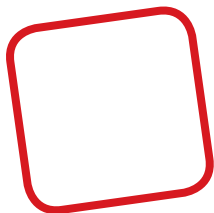

TRACEY

Again again, thanks for your service last season we are all glad your back for another season! When are we getting invited to play at Moors Valley?!?!?

DAWN

We welcome you into the waterside family! I would personally just like to say "hands off the top goals scorer trophy" hehehe

COACH STEVE

A massive thankyou to steve who has agreed to coach us this season, so pay attention girls there is much to learn.

BECCA HAS A NEW MAN

Yes recent reports are true, Becca has a new man I can reveal his name is Vince and he is a beauty!

Check him out!!! A very smooth ride indeed x

PAY ATTENTION!!! NEW RULES!!!

- Self-pass: make it two actions - one for the take, and the next to play on - whenever free hit rules apply: side lines, 16s, long corners, and yes the centre pass as well.
- Opponents: if you are caught within 5m of the other team's free hit, don't interfere until play has moved on - think, hold back, and don't give anything else away.
- Attacking: free hits in the 23, including side lines and long corners - don't take it until team mates get 5m.
- Pass it: when you do take it (FHA in the 23), comply with the 'indirect into the circle' rule with a simple pass to anyone outside the circle, or else self-pass and travel 5m with the ball and then you can play it into the circle.

WATERSIDES ANSWER TO JOEY BARTON... CHERRY EXPLAINS WHY TWO DRINKS IS NEVER ENOUGH

So we all got to know the real chezza on tour in Burnley where her true colours shone threw like a yorkshire beacon. "Yes I enjoyed tour, I think" she said on reflection. "But I can never get drunk on the second night of drinking". Well thats not what the rest of the team witnessed is it now cherry.

So friday night saw chezzanator head straight to the bar and way over two pints later she decided to buy everyone a round of green shots. It wasn't til the next day she realised she had been charged £25 for the bottle of corks which in Burnley was some feat!

She also lost all memory of talking to the strange pigeon man ... hmmm I wonder why.

But the best was saved for the saturday where her korma was too spicy so she necked a bottle of wine instead then when we walked into a slightly dodgy bar she proceeded to puke under the table, then ask for a bucket to mop it up.

Total class chez, cant wait for the next installment of chester gets drunk.

price £22.

Right is the proposed away shirt, estimated price £20

To order a hoody please let Becca know your size.

Becca will be discussing the new away shirt with the team after training.

So here are some classic moments captured from the recent Burnley tour and fundraising 'walk the wight'.
